You Have No Excuse.

Have you any excuse for suffering with Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint? Is there any reason why you should go on from day to day, feeling as you do with your Stomach, Sick Headache, Habitual Constipation, Palpitation of the Heart, Heartburn, Waterbrash, Gaining and Burning Pains at the pit of the Stomach, Yellow Skin, Taste in the Mouth, Coming Up of Food after eating, Low Spirits, etc.?

No! It is positively your own fault if you do. Go to your Druggist and get a Bottle of Dr. Green's Oxygeneated Bitters. For 75 cents your cure is certain, but if you don't take it, get a Sample Bottle for 10 cents and try it. Two doses will relieve you.

IT IS TRULY WONDERFUL.

To see what improvements now exist as compared with railway travel only a few years ago. To become convinced of this, one has only to select for his route East the popular and well-known CHICAGO & NORTHWESTERN RAILWAY.

You are loaded by the Union Pacific Railroad in the Union Depot at Council Bluffs, where stands the O. & N. W. Palace Train, composed of Pullman Hotel Cars, Pullman Sleeping Cars, Elegant Day Coaches, Smoking, Baggage, Postal Cars, etc., ready to convey its passengers through Iowa and Illinois, and into Chicago. Gliding smoothly along over the superb track of steel rail through thriving cities and villages, comfortably seated in this train, one scarcely discovers the high rate of speed which he is riding. Trains of this road are always on time, comfortable, sure, and passengers seeking pleasure, comfort, safety and ease in traveling, will find the "North-Western" in excess of their expectations, and the greatest of all routes to Chicago and the East. Instant upon Ticket. Agents selling you tickets via this Road, all they want is your money. Examine your Tickets, and before you buy if they do not read over this Road. If you wish the Best Traveling Accommodations, you will buy your Tickets by this Route. AND WILL TAKE NO OTHER.

Swallowing Poison.

Swallowing and inhaling the noxious fumes of Catarrh Catarrh, is not alone the small organs, but the stomach and lungs. No merely local remedy, like douches and injections, can possibly reach or eradicate the virulent spores of Catarrh. The fact explains the wonderful cures effected by Dr. W. D. Meyer's new inoculative treatment. The elements used by him are absorbed by the mucous membranes throughout the system and form a constitutional as well as local antidote, as certain to cure Catarrh, as vaccine virus is to prevent Smallpox. Its unexcelled sale with unqualified testimonials from many thousands who, at all stages of the disease, have been cured by this wonderful remedy, establish beyond contradiction the fact that W. D. Meyer's Catarrh Cure is the most important medical discovery since vaccination.

Rev. C. H. Taylor, 140 Noble St., Brooklyn, writes: "One package produced a radical cure." It entirely cured a member of my family who had suffered from Catarrh for 40 years." J. D. McDonald, 710 Broadway, N. Y.: "My wife was cured by it, of 15 years Catarrh." J. A. Swartz, 230 Hudson Ave., Jersey City: "It cured me after doctoring for nearly 30 years." Mrs. Emma C. Howes, 23 W. Washington Place, N. Y.: "After being given up by physicians, I was cured of Chronic Catarrh by your medicine." Rev. Geo. A. Rice, Oakbrook, Ill.: "Seven members of my family have Catarrh, and all are receiving great benefit from the Cure." Rev. W. H. Sumner, 1000 Broadway, N. Y.: "It is worth ten times its cost." Rev. C. J. Jones, New Brighton, Staten Island: "I referred me to my ministerial brethren, Rev. Geo. A. Rice, Oakbrook, Ill., N. Y.: "When I commenced its use I was too dead to bear the church bells." It can now bear the church bells. W. H. Truett, 111 E. 1st St., Ill.: "I received one of your Pills, and it cured me of Catarrh." W. D. Meyer's "Catarrh Cure" is mailed free. His "Cure" is delivered in the States or by Dr. J. H. Dwyer & Co., 107 West Street, New York, $1.00 complete.

SUICIDE.

A Young Man Deliberately Shoots Himself with a Pistol.

Just before 3 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, a young man named Leo Steinau shot himself with a revolver. He entered the gunsmith shop of Mr. Joe Barker, on Commercial street, and began talking with the proprietor. In the course of the conversation, which was about nothing in particular, he said he wanted to buy a pistol. Mr. Barker began showing him some, and he inquired about their details. Finally he was shown an old navy revolver, the barrel of which had been cut down to about half its usual length. He asked what steel bullet it carried, and was shown some slugs which had been moulded. He tried one, and finding it was not a fit, whittled it down with his knife, and told Mr. Barker to load the pistol and he would buy it, adding that one load would do. Mr. Barker did not take the slug which Steinau had cut down, but another, and having loaded the weapon, handed it to the young man. He took the pistol and Mr. Barker turned to replace the pistol he had been showing to young Steinau. He had just turned his head when he heard the click of the cylinder turning, and looking around he saw Steinau with the muzzle of the pistol against his left breast, and before he could grab him, the weapon was discharged. Steinau was standing near the door at the time, and without any evidence of agitation, laid the pistol on the counter with the right hand, and opened the door with the left, and walked out, followed closely by Barker. Mr. Barker and Mr. Pierce in the next shop who heard the shot, and saw the young man walking in an unsteady manner, caught hold of and assisted him. He walked along until he got nearly in front of Meers' liquor store, when he sank down and was carried into the Wasatch drug store. He was examined by a number of doctors, and there was difference of opinion as to the character of the wound, whether it was fatal or not. It was conceded that the ball, which entered the left breast a little below the collar-bone, and coming downward, struck the back of the left side of the spine and the last rib, had passed through the left lung. While Dr. Taggart told him he was going to die, and he said that's what I want. The doctor then asked why he shot himself, and he said he did so because he was tired of living. His brother, Mr. Joseph Steinau, then came in with tears in his eyes, when Leo told him not to weep, and said he had done it with a steady hand, and was tired of living. He was then removed to his brother's rooms in the King House, in the rear of the Tribune office, Dr. Hamilton and Bane attending him.

There was some intimation that a female was concerned in the affair, but he indignantly denied it. His brother questioned him, but got no answer, save that he had been great enemies to his parents in Louisville, Kentucky, and that he did not wish to be so any longer. He also told his brother that he had written a letter to him, which he would find in his pocket when he was dead; whereas Mr. Joe Steinau wished to read it then, but Leo objected so strongly that he desisted. Mr. Joe Steinau said the young man had been very fat of late and spent considerable money; but there was no occasion for his doing the rash act; his parents live at Louisville, Ky., where he has position, and has been and to which he could have returned at any time.

At 12.30 o'clock last night his condition remained unchanged. He apparently suffered a great deal; was perfectly conscious and very quick at perceiving what was going on in his room. There existed, at midnight, a wide difference of opinion as to what the effect of the shot would be. He had spit no blood, and some of the doctors declared that his lungs and not been touched, and that he would recover, unless inflammation, with attendant danger, set in. Some say the ball merely entered the flesh and passed around the skin and came out at the back. This contention is reasonable, and physicians agree that the ball passed through his body, but as to its having touched the lung or not, there is a difference. He is a little over 20 years of age, and possesses decidedly prepossessing features.

A Fact Worth Knowing.

Are you suffering with Consumption, Coughs, Severe Colds settled on the Breast, Pneumonia, or any disease of the Throat and Lungs? Do you go to your Druggist and get a bottle of BOEHRER'S GELMAN STRIP. This medicine has lately been introduced from Germany, and is selling on its own merits. The people are going wild over its success, and doctors all over our country are writing us of its wonderful cures among their customers. If you wish to try its superior virtue, get a Sample Bottle for 10 cents. Large size bottle 75 cents. Three doses will relieve any case. Try it.

Your Life is at Stake.

There is no question about it. Whoever neglects a Cough or Cold, does so at the risk of his or her life. Today it may be easily controlled; tomorrow the lungs may be full of tubercles. Think of this. Do not willfully rush to a consumptive's grave. Remember that a few doses of "HALL'S HONEY OF HORSHODOR" and "TAR" will cure any Cough, if taken early enough. Remember also, that there is a crisis when all medication is "too late." Sold by all druggists at 50c. and $1.00—the large size being much the cheapest.

SALT LAKE CITY, Jan. 13, '81.

Editors Herald:

Preschers often, in their baranques, counsel their congregations to exercise charity and wisdom; forgiveness where it is asked, and where genuine repentance is manifested. No one can deny that it is a good doctrine, and it followed by all persons would do an immense amount of good in reclaiming many of our young and erring men. But what is the customary action? It has only needed one misstep from the path of rectitude laid down, and the young man or woman is pointed at as unfit for good associates.

Now, I say, practice what you preach. When an erring one applies to you for help, manifesting a repentant disposition, give him a chance; or help him to find employment, and let him, if he can, redeem his reputation and keep his promises of better conduct. I know of young men here who have applied time and again for such aid, and they have lost their situation through some indiscretion—but all of no avail.

I know of one gentleman in a certain city not 100 miles away, who took a young man under his wing, and on his promise of future good behavior. The young man was a stranger to the gentleman, but now is respectable and respected. Who dares emulate that gentleman's example? There are quite a number in this city who would apply at once for work of any kind only that they fear the severe and ironical remarks of those to whom they apply. When one begins to lose respect for himself, caused more by the intended of pretended friends and the natural reason following a bad action—he cannot receive a scathing answer without a feeling of resentment or humiliation arising. Give the sinner a show.

Patents to School Lands.

SALT LAKE CITY, Jan. 13, 1881.

Editors Herald:

We have lately on appeal to the honorable secretary of the interior, in the case of Jans Hodget, obtained a ruling which opens up to preemption on school sections, the means of obtaining patents for their lands subject to certain provisions, principle of which is occupancy with a view to preemption previous to the filing of the survey of said lands.

There are many persons living on sections 15 or 36, who made their residence there before the survey of the lands, who have neglected, through lack of understanding of the law, to make their entries during the ninety days allowed under the act of the survey. Such persons can now make their entries and obtain their patents by fulfilling the provisions of the law governing preemption.

The florist and seedmen are issuing their catalogues for 1881, and among others that have been received is that from the famous Rochester establishment of James Vick. In its get up art is contrived and lavishly, and the result is a book of more than 100 pages that is a very gem in appearance and contents. Mr. Vick has reason to feel pride in his catalogue, as all his patrons will prize it not only for its value but for its beautiful and interesting contents. It shows evidences of the beautifying influence of the florist, so each year does Mr. Vick produce something that is more handsome and better than its predecessor. The Guide is sold for 10c.

POST OFFICES.

A Query from Hyrum—and a Statement from Alpina.

HYRUM, CACHE CO., Jan. 10th, 1881.

Editors Herald:

For the benefit of some of your subscribers, I ask a space in your valuable paper to give the subscribers some information in regard to postoffice rules. We have here a tri-weekly mail, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. Your Saturday's issue reaches us on Tuesday, and your Wednesday's on Thursday. The query is: If your subscriber is not at the office Tuesday or any mail day he is refused his mail and told to come on mail day. Now, for instance, if the railroad is blocked and there is no mail on Tuesday, and you do not happen to be at the office on Thursday, the chances are you must wait until Saturday for it, and of course your own will be old enough for next year. Now, the question is, are not the postoffice rules supposed to be open every day for the distribution of mail matter? Please inform your readers.

A SUBSCRIBER.

The law, Sec. 535, page 125, of Postal Laws and Regulations, says: "Each postmaster, will keep his postoffice open for the dispatch of business every day, except Sunday, during the usual hours of business in the place, and attend at such postoffice, or at such place, to receive and dispatch mails. When the mail arrives on Sunday he will keep his postoffice open for one hour or more after the arrival and assortment thereof, if the public convenience requires it, for the delivery of the same only. If it be received during the time of public worship the opening of the postoffice will be delayed until services have closed."

The postmaster, therefore, is not doing his duty and is liable, at any moment to be relieved from his office, if he persists in failing to comply with the law as above stated.

ALPINA CITY, Jan. 12th, '81.

Editors Herald:

I do not often trouble you with my thoughts, but as I am one of, if not the oldest of your subscribers, having been so from the first, you will doubtless give me a corner; and now I like it just twice as well as ever; first, because I can only get it in double numbers; second, because it is so much more to me—that is, twice as outspoken and not so shy as she was when young.

For a great many years we have been allowed to get our mail every day, if we would send six miles for it and carry it for nothing (except Thursday). Now, the postoffice authorities at Washington have forbidden its being delivered to us only on Thursdays; so our mail matter has to stay in the office at American Fork from Friday morning until Tuesday afternoon, and then we get it all together, if there happen to be no mistakes or carelessness, and of course, there never is, either with the mails or the officials. Some of it is of no use when it comes to us, but, having caused loss in every way, we can do as we have done with what we send away, viz., send it to American Fork and put it on the railroad cars; so it is sure to go away in time; and if it is not, we can wait for it.

Do not think we can lawfully be prohibited from putting our letters on the railroad cars when they are important (and we); and if we cannot do better with that, comes to us, we can do as we did when it was carried by express from the Missouri River, and be very thankful for all that safely arrives at its destination. We did think our very liberal government would have allowed us to have our mail if it would carry it for nothing, but now that we cannot have it even by going for it, except we go individually, be very sure to put our papers in on the Thursday morning, for, if not, we must wait another week.

Do you think Governor Major Domo will be able to stand it when he finds out that about 500 of his slaves may be from one to two weeks before they hear whether he has a cocktail or a sling as an eye opener, poor man.

Editors Herald:

Christmas and New Year's have passed, bringing little more than ordinary stir, excitement or trade, and leaving behind a period of the greatest quiet in trade we have ever experienced since the place was built. This has arisen partly from the fact that over 100 miners were for a short time discharged about the middle of December, causing quite a depression in money circulation. These men were again put to work on January 1st, and all will go on as usual again, and the company make a better showing by $30,000 at the close of the year than as though the men had worked on. There is no falling off in the mill or mine yield, but on the contrary, the mines seem to be improving, and the outlook seems to be all the time getting better as to real permanence and stability.

The weather has been variable; quite pleasant through the holidays, but recently we have cold winds and ice at night.

The announcements have consisted of a dancing party on Christmas Eve in the new schoolhouse, and a Miner's Union party on New Year's Eve in their own hall, both pleasant affairs.

A public free school is to be commenced next Monday in the new schoolhouse, and several ladies of the place are practicing a number in vocal music with a view to giving concerts for the benefit of the school.

It is a time of general good health, and the M. D. and druggens are languid.

A Close Call.

Before midnight, last night, a young fellow who was coaxing circumstance to make him an angel, stood on the Elephant corner. He had his pistol in his hand and showed his contempt of danger by the careless carelessness with which he handled the weapon. Suddenly discharged, while pointed near the inside of his thigh, the ball burned his clothes, but did not do him any injury, which some may consider a misfortune. Such brave indifference among young men should always be regarded with a telling word, though this young fellow is probably satisfied with his call.
